FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

Christ Himself speaks of His Own kingly authority in His last discourse, speaking of the rewards and punishments that will be the eternal lot of the just and the damned; in His reply to the Roman magistrate, who asked Him publicly whether He were a king or not; after His resurrection, when giving to His Apostles the mission of teaching and Baptizing all nations, He took the opportunity to call Himself king, confirming the title publicly, and solemnly proclaimed that all power was given Him in Heaven and on earth.

It was surely right, then, in view of the common teaching of the sacred books, that the Catholic Church, which is the kingdom of Christ on earth, destined to be spread among all men and all nations, should with every token of veneration salute her Author and Founder in her annual liturgy as King and Lord, and as King of Kings. And, in fact, she used these titles, giving expression with wonderful variety of language to one and the same concept, both in ancient psalmody and in the Sacramentaries.

These words can only be taken to indicate the greatness of his power, the infinite extent of His kingdom. What wonder, then, that He Whom St. John calls the "prince of the kings of the earth" appears in the Apostle's vision of the future as He Who "hath on His garment and on His thigh written 'King of kings and Lord of lords!'" It is Christ Whom the Father "hath appointed heir of all things"; "for He must reign until at the end of the world He hath put all his enemies under the feet of God and the Father."

GIFT AID APPEAL UPDATE

A big thank-you to everyone who responded so positively to the Gift Aid Appeal that I made at the three Masses last week-end. You'll be pleased to learn that there were a total of twenty-two new members who signed up at their respective Masses & there were at least a further five people who took the declaration forms home with them to discuss with their family. Hopefully, the majority of these will join the scheme as well over the next week or so.

What is really heartening is that the time spent making the appeals was more than rewarded by the parishioners who took the trouble to join up. I also had numerous conversations with existing members who indicated that they would increase their regular donations. All of this goes to show what a wonderful parish community we have here at Wimbledon Common working together for the greater glory of God.

FAITH IN ACTION

Faith in Action runs the Homeless Drop-In centre in Merton twice a week every week of the year, and we work closely with the Merton Winter Night Shelters to support homeless people and help them move on.

Our website has resources and briefing material which you may find useful for addressing the issue of local homelessness over Christmas.

We are currently looking to recruit more Volunteers, a worthwhile opportunity and essential to the running of the Homeless Drop-In. We need people who can make a regular commitment to help for a full day a week, Wednesdays or Fridays 9.30am-3.30pm.
